General Information

JOINT 43rd ERRS AND 20th GBS CONFERENCE IN ESSEN

September 17th to 21st, 2017

We are particularly happy to announce that diverse sources of support for young investigator travel have been secured, including support from the ERRS, the GBS, and the Organizers.

Please refer to submenu items for information regarding specific requirements put in place by ERRS, GBS and the Organizers.

We encourage ALL young investigators to apply

Travel awards are fixed at 400€ for participants from Germany and at 500€ for participants outside Germany, independently of Source of Support.

Interested individuals can apply by simply checking the appropriate box in the Abstract Submission Form found on the Website (<http://errs-gbs-2017.eu/>).

Applicants are not required to indicate preference regarding source of support. The Organizers will pre-sort applications and will forward to ERRS and GBS for evaluation only those that fulfill their stipulated requirements. All applications without exception will be considered for funding by the Organizers.
